

WILSON AND LANSING PREPARE DRAFT OF NOTE TO GERMANY

WILL BE SENT BERLIN PROBABLY BEFORE END OF THE PRESENT WEEK—WILL BE SUBMITTED TO CABINET TODAY—NO INFORMATION AS TO ITS CONTENTS.

PRESIDENT CAUTIONS SILENCE

Wants Nothing Given Out and Correspondents Requested Not to Speculate as to Details—Is Brief and Expresses Conclusions of U. S. as Result of Failure to Reply in Clear Terms.

Washington, July 19.—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing prepared today the draft of a note on the line of the war, and the note will be submitted to the cabinet tomorrow and to be sent to Germany probably before the end of the present week.

Beyond the fact that the position already taken by the United States in its previous notes will be reiterated, no information was forthcoming at either the white house or state department concerning the probable contents of the note.

The president cautioned those with whom he counsel to refrain from discussing the note in advance of its dispatch to Germany. When the officials particularly requested that correspondents avoid speculation in detail at this time because the character of the document had not been finally determined.

The note, it is understood, will be comparatively brief, expressing the conclusions of this government as a result of Germany's failure to give the assurances asked for in previous notes, namely, that the lives of Americans traveling on the high seas bound on lawful errands aboard unarmored and unarmed merchantmen be not endangered.

At the same time, the president said today he had expected the result of the American passengers aboard, but if this failed to arrive in another day or two he would request one of the departments of the government to institute an investigation to obtain accurate information concerning the incident.

Negro Shoots Farmer.
Waxahatchie, July 19.—Officers today are searching for Silas Haggins, colored, who shot and killed Charlie Tapp on the road between Waxahatchie and Ennis. Tapp and his brother Willis were driving in a buggy when they met Haggins, who shot him in the back.

Dallas Autoists to Galveston.
Dallas, July 19.—At least fifty and perhaps more automobiles will leave Dallas Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock for the annual run to Galveston. There have been more registrations for the run this year than ever before.

Dallas Wants Billy Sunday.
Dallas, July 19.—At a meeting Monday afternoon of the committee of one hundred to raise funds to secure Billy Sunday, W. C. Everett was made chairman of a committee to confer with Mr. Sunday.

Dead Under Auto.
Houston, July 19.—Lawrence House, son of J. T. House of Hockley, was found dead under his overturned automobile this afternoon three miles north of Cypress, this county.

SUMMARY OF WAR

The mightiest struggle of the war, in which Austrians and Germans are making their supreme effort, is being waged along the great Russian front which extends nearly 1000 miles from the Baltic to Bessarabia. In Russian Poland the center of the maelstrom is the territory around Warsaw and from the north and south the Austro-Germans under the most successful of the German commanders are advancing with the determination of pressing back or breaking through the Russian lines of defense.

Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander in chief, has if unofficial reports are to be relied upon, brought up vast numbers of troops to meet the sweep of the Austro-Germans, who, however, have forced the front at several points. No late advice of the progress of the operations have been received, which would seem to be an indication that no decisive gain has been made on either side.

In Poland alone it is estimated several million men are engaged in the battle, and military critics feel that should the Russians fail to withstand the pressure which is daily being exerted against Warsaw they are in a position to withdraw even to the extent of completely evacuating Poland.

Labor troubles are affecting the nations at war. The stocks of war munitions of Great Britain and France are likely to be considerably curtailed should a strike at the Remington Arms Company, which is manufacturing machine guns and ammunition at Bridgeport, Conn., where large contracts are outstanding.

The South Wales coal miners refuse to meet the wishes of the British government and David Lloyd, the minister of munitions, has gone to Cardiff and will make a strenuous effort to have the men reconcile their differences with the mine owners and return to work. Mr. Lloyd is accompanied by other members of the British cabinet and some

CONDITION OF FRANK REMAINS CRITICAL

DR. G. D. COMPTON, THE PRISON PHYSICIAN, ANNOUNCES IS HOPEFUL OF RECOVERY.

Temperature at Late Hour is 101.8. Green Says He Was Called From on High to Kill.

Milledgeville, Ga., July 19.—The condition of Leo M. Frank suffering from a serious knife wound inflicted by William Green, a fellow life-term convict at the Georgia prison farm, remained critical tonight. Dr. G. D. Compton, the prison physician, announced, however, that he was hopeful of Frank's recovery. Possibly blood poisoning from infection is one of the chief dangers to his life.

Frank's temperature late today was announced at 101.8, his circulation 100 and his respiration 26. Early today his temperature was 102.4. Attending physicians were gratified at the decline.

Green, questioned further by prison officials today, said he believed he had been called from "one on high" to kill Frank.

"I only wish that I had had more strength," Green said. "I think that I have done my duty in this matter as well as my strength allowed. I believe that God has helped me. I don't think that I ever did a wrong in my life."

Green weighs 165 pounds but is partially paralyzed in his left arm. Physicians attending Frank believe that this fact probably saved his life. Should Frank die Green probably would be tried for murder. No decision has been reached as to what action would be taken if Frank recovers.

Legislature Won't Probe.
Atlanta, July 19.—The penitentiary committee of the Georgia house of representatives late today tabled three resolutions which would have provided for a legislative investigation of the attack made on Leo M. Frank at the state prison farm at Milledgeville.

Members of the committee said they believed William Green alone was involved and that there was no negligence on the part of the prison officials.

The state prison commission, however, will visit the prison farm Saturday to investigate the attack. The commission is expected to make an announcement made tonight.

Girls Escape From Industrial Home to Make Complaints
Dallas, July 19.—All except one of the twenty girls detained at the Dallas county girls' industrial home at Elam escaped last night and started for Dallas to "go before the grand jury" with complaints about the treatment they received at the home.

Eighteen of them were captured near the city by a deputy sheriff at 11 o'clock last night. When he invited them into automobiles the girls accepted, thinking they were getting a lift to Dallas. Five of them jumped and ran when they discovered they were going back to the home but were recaptured. One girl returned to the home voluntarily.

Cause of Social Evil.
San Francisco, July 19.—Not alone the mentally deficient and the poor among women are found in the ranks of the immoral, Miss Mary Brown of Seattle, superintendent of the department of curfew of the National Women's Christian Temperance union, said here today in an address at the International Purify congress.

In the country 500,000 openly immoral women and "probably a far greater number" practicing immorality clandestinely, she said, including school girls.

She blamed street mashers for such immorality.

Overrule Motion to Quash.
Boulder, Colo., July 19.—Neil F. Graham, local today overruled a motion to quash the murder indictment against five labor leaders growing out of coal strike disorders at the Hecia mine. He set the cases for trial August 23.

While comparative quiet prevails along the western front the French report that considerable losses were inflicted on the Germans when the French repulsed strong attacks on the heights of the Meuse. A violent cannonade near Souchez, the bombardment of Arras and fighting with bombs and Petards in the Argonne constituted virtually all of the fighting that took place.

Would Settle Krupp Wage Dispute.
Geneva, Switzerland, July 19.—An important meeting was held at Essen yesterday, according to advices received at Basel, between the administration of the Krupp gun works and representatives of the workmen in order to settle the wage dispute. About 100,000 men are involved. Minor cases of sabotage in which machinery has been destroyed have been reported.

The military authorities before the meeting, the Basel advices said, warned both sides that unless an immediate arrangement was reached drastic measures would be employed.

The Krupp officials were understood to have granted a portion of the demands of the employees which has brought about a temporary peace, but many workmen still appeared unsatisfied and quit. A strike would greatly affect the supply of munitions.

Roads Want 3 Cent Fare.
Oklahoma City, July 19.—Four railroads of Oklahoma opened today their fight to secure 3 cent passenger fares by placing A. Hernady, auditor of the Rock Island, upon the stand in federal district court to introduce statistics purporting to show the cost of transporting passengers. He presented tables of cost and revenue figures and when court was adjourned was being examined upon their compilation.

This is the second hearing of the effort of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, the Santa Fe, the Rock Island and the Frisco to nullify the state law fixing passenger fares at 2 cents a mile. The railroads assert that 2 cent fares will not produce a reasonable profit.

The state will introduce evidence purporting to show that the 2 cent fares are just.

RUSSIA'S TASK IS NOW TO HOLD THE CAPITAL OF POLAND

VON HINDENBURG AND VON MACKENSEN ARE WHIPPING FORWARD THE TWO ENDS OF A GREAT ARC AROUND WARSAW.

London, July 19.—Can Warsaw be held by the Russians? With the German field marshals, Von Hindenburg on the north and Von Mackensen on the south, whipping forward the two ends of a great arc around the city, it is realized in England that Grand Duke Nicholas, commander in chief of the Russian armies, has the most severe task imposed on him since the outbreak of the European war and the military writers of some of the London papers seem to think his task well-nigh impossible.

There was sustained confidence that Germany's previous violent attacks along the Bzura-Rawa front would never pierce the Russian line, but the present colossal co-ordinate movement was developed with such suddenness and carried so far without meeting serious Russian resistance, and the fall of the Polish capital and while not giving up all hope of its retention is pointing out the enormous difficulty the Russian armies have labored under from the start by the existence of such a salient.

Having been unable to straighten out their line by an advance through East Prussia in the north and Galicia in the south, the Russians have perpetually faced the pincers of the Austro-Germans and if these can now sufficiently be tightened Warsaw must go and with it the entire line.

As was the case on Saturday when the Austro-Germans recorded the success of their offensive in the east, no official communication from either Berlin or Vienna reached the London newspapers today. Saturday's communication was released for publication and up to nearly midnight tonight no new communication has come to hand.

Information from Petrograd there is nothing to throw fresh light on the eastern front, but the Austro-German advance could hardly have so soon lost its momentum.

According to the latest accounts the Austro-German forces advancing from Przasnysz were within forty miles of Warsaw while to the south Polish forces were at certain points within ten miles of the Lublin-Chelm railroad.

Emperor William Confident.
London, July 19, 3:25 a. m.—The Morning Post's Petrograd correspondent says that Emperor William has sent his sister, the queen of Greece, the following telegram:

"I have paralyzed the Russians for at least six months. The event of delivering a coup on the western front that will make all Europe tremble."

Claim Evacuation Ordered.
London, July 19, 3:35 a. m.—The Morning Post's Budapest correspondent reports that the gradual evacuation of Warsaw has been ordered by the Russians.

Vice President of Oak Cliff Bank and Trust Co. Suicides
Dallas, July 19.—R. Y. Simpson, vice president of the Oak Cliff Bank and Trust company, shot and killed himself today in the barn behind his home here today with a pistol. He was 59 years old. His health was the apparent cause of the shooting.

Switzerland Complains.
Berne, Switzerland, via Paris, July 19.—Switzerland has complained repeatedly to the belligerent nations that the postal traffic between this country and other neutrals and especially with the United States has been greatly hindered by the censors of the belligerents. Numerous letters, even those that have been registered, mailed from or to neutral countries, are daily retained, according to the Swiss authorities. Public and official complaints heretofore have been without result.

DAY'S OUTING ENDS IN DEATH OF WOMAN

MRS. HERBERT B. HARLOW IS KILLED AND MRS. FRED J. BARN INJURED.

Horse Becomes Frightened and Runs, Dragging Carl A. Dutton, the Driver.

Mrs. Herbert B. Harlow received injuries that caused her death a short time later and Mrs. Fred J. Barn of Little Rock, Ark., was probably seriously injured about 10 o'clock last night when they were thrown or jumped from a light spring wagon in which they were returning from a day's outing at Mills Crossing. Carl A. Dutton, who was driving, was slightly injured by being dragged along the road after he had been thrown from the seat.

The horse became frightened when a buggy passed and ran, Dutton being unable to hold him.

The back of Mrs. Harlow's skull was crushed and she suffered internal injuries. Responding to a telephone call, the police patrol made a quick run to the place where the women were thrown from the wagon, near the Cedar brakes, five miles out on the Mills crossing road.

Thought at first not to be seriously injured, Mrs. Harlow's condition late last night gave physicians much uneasiness. Internal injuries are feared. Dutton suffered only slight scratches, caused by being dragged along the ground when he still held to the reins after falling from the seat soon after the horse started to run. Whether the two women left in the wagon attempted to jump or were thrown bodily from the swiftly moving vehicle when it struck a rough place in the road is not known.

Mrs. Harlow was Miss Edna Porter before her marriage. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Porter, live at 728 North Eleventh street. Her husband, Herbert B. Harlow, and two small children survive, in addition to several brothers and sisters. Mrs. Harlow lived at Twenty-fourth and Bosque streets.

The horse reached the home of J. D. Harlow soon after the accident with the wagon still in good shape. The funeral will be held from the J. D. Harlow residence, 1905 Ethel street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, with burial in Oakwood cemetery.

Aldridge Lumber Company Destroyed; Loss is $250,000
Houston, July 19.—The entire holdings of the Aldridge Lumber company at Aldridge, eight miles east of Rockland, were destroyed by fire Monday morning, causing a damage estimated at $250,000. Fully insured. Only the office and commissary were saved.

W. H. Aldridge, owner of the mill and yard, was in Houston on business when he received news of the fire, which started about 5 o'clock, and he took the afternoon train for Aldridge. The fire made a clean sweep of the mill, planer, dry kiln and the yards. In the latter was stacked more than 8,000,000 feet of lumber, it was stated.

Camp Meeting at Caldwell.
Caldwell, July 19.—Rev. C. U. McLarty began a camp meeting at Gee Springs Sunday afternoon. A number of tenters are on the grounds and numbers go out from town in their autos. Rev. J. W. Cullen of Sour Lake is expected today to assist Rev. McLarty.

Autoists From Dallas Reach Here Today on Tour to Galveston
A large party of Waco autoists is expected to arrive here today on a Dallas sociability tour a few miles out on the Dallas road and escort them into town. It is reported that the Dallas party will be the largest that has ever made the tour to Galveston.

The control will be either Calvert, Hearne or Bryan, according to the plans announced, and it is expected that Galveston will be reached some time tomorrow.

Roosevelt to Talk Soon.
Portland, Ore., July 19.—"From time to time I shall have something to say on matters of vital interest to the nation as a whole, but it will not be by report or by mollycoddles," said Theodore Roosevelt here today when a large, cheering crowd compelled him to acknowledge the greeting from the rear of his train. Mr. Roosevelt then warned the public not to believe any mere read or hear at second or third hand. Colonel Roosevelt departed for San Francisco.

BERLIN PRESS CLAIMS GERMAN DID NOT PREVENT PEACE PLAN

NORD DEUTSCHE ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG PUBLISHES WHAT PURPORTS TO BE DETAILS OF NEGOTIATIONS WHICH TOOK PLACE IN 1912.

London, July 19.—The Berlin Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung publishes what purports to be the details of the negotiations in 1912 looking to an Anglo-German rapprochement in which Viscount Haldane, then British secretary of state for war, took a prominent part.

The substance of the article is contained in a Reuter dispatch from Berlin by way of Amsterdam and the article is published "in order to disprove Viscount Haldane's statement that his efforts for peace were frustrated by Germany."

According to the statement the first draft of the treaty ran:

"Should one of the contracting parties become engaged in war with one or more powers the other contracting party shall adopt at least an attitude of benevolent neutrality and exert every effort to localize the conflict."

England declined to accept this and made the following counter proposal: "Should one of the contracting parties become engaged in war with one or more powers the other contracting party shall adopt at least an attitude of benevolent neutrality and exert every effort to localize the conflict."

HURTING ALIES BY ACTIVITIES IN U. S.

AT INSTANCE OF ENGLAND, THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS TO PROBE ALLEGED ACTS.

German Sympathizers in America Take Unlawful Means to Aid Mother Country's Cause.

Washington, July 19.—At the instance of the British government, the state department has called on the department of justice to investigate the activities of certain German sympathizers in the United States who are alleged to have been employing unlawful means to strike at Great Britain and her allies.

Until inquiry has developed whether there is sufficient evidence to warrant prosecution no names will be made public. It is known, however, that information has reached the embassy concerning all kinds of plots, ranging from schemes to wreck bridges over which railroad trains carrying volunteers of the British army to the incitement of strikes at American industrial plants making war supplies for the allies.

One case in which the British government informed the state department it had evidence, involved a wealthy German resident of Detroit, Mich., who was alleged to have solicited money to equip persons in Windsor, Ont., to finance an attempt to dynamite a Canadian armory and a factory making clothing for the British army. Great Britain inquired whether this case, if fully substantiated, would constitute military activity on American soil constituting a breach of neutrality.

Several prosecutions already have resulted from government investigations of violations of neutrality laws. It is understood that stories of plots to blow up British ships at sea have been carefully looked into and that scores of suspected persons have been under surveillance in various parts of the country.

According to reports today in official circles some persons of high repute in American business circles have been mentioned in reports transmitted by the British government, but their names are being jealously guarded pending the outcome of the investigation.

Fire of Mysterious Origin in Battleship Oklahoma at N. Y.
Philadelphia, July 19.—Fire of mysterious origin was discovered tonight on the U. S. battleship Oklahoma at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding company in Camden. Smoke was seen issuing from the compartment under turret No. 1 shortly after the workmen had left the yard for the day. The compartment was flooded and it was believed the fire had been put out. At 9 o'clock more smoke was observed and the compartment was again flooded, the fire being extinguished an hour later.

S. M. Knox, president of the shipbuilding company, declared he was unable to account for the fire, which was observed and the compartment was again flooded, the fire being extinguished an hour later.

MEXICAN CAPITAL IS THREATENED BY AN ATTACK BY VILLA

GEN. GONZALES, WHO DROVE ZAPATA ARMY FROM CITY TEN DAYS AGO, MARCHES TROOPS HURRIEDLY TO MEET COLUMN OF DEFEATED FORCES.

Washington, July 19.—Mexico City is again threatened with attack and the Carranza forces under General Gonzales, who drove the Zapata army from the capital ten days ago, have marched hurriedly northward to engage an advancing Villa column believed to be planning a junction with the Zapata troops now menacing communication with Vera Cruz.

State department dispatches today announced General Gonzales with most of his army had evacuated Mexico City yesterday, turning the government over to the civil authorities. This was greeted by advices that General Villa's flying column which circled Obregon's forces after the battle of Aguas Calientes and captured Queretaro, had taken possession of Pachuca, within 40 miles of Mexico City, and was marching on the capital. Simultaneously with the latter report came the news that General Carranza had taken possession of the reconstructed railroad seats of Apizaco, a junction point to the south of Pachuca, and had ordered it held exclusively for transportation of troops and ammunition, thus preventing further shipments of provisions from Vera Cruz to the needy thousands at Mexico City.

Officials here made no effort to conceal their belief that the situation surrounding the Mexican capital was grave. With another flying column of the city imminent and with much needed food shipments from the east coast cut off, it was feared further suffering among the civil population would follow. That the food situation has not seemed to be as serious as indicated in a report to the American Red Cross, which spoke of the "vastness of the misery already apparent," and cited instances of crowds besieging the slaughter houses for food of animals.

General Gonzales' sudden evacuation of the city, it was feared here, would make further relief work at the capital practically impossible. It was believed that the situation was a desperate one and that decisive developments in the situation have occurred.

The state department tonight issued the following summary of advices: "The department is in receipt of advices from Mexico City dated July 19, stating that General Gonzales and his forces have unexpectedly evacuated Mexico City and its surroundings. The civil and military authorities lately appointed by General Gonzales have also left the city and that the purpose of attacking Carranza forces in the capital, planning to secure Pachuca first as a base of operations and to effect a junction with Zapata. The latter was responsible for the 'straggles' mentioned by General Gonzales. In one instance they blew up a train from Vera Cruz to Mexico City near Apizaco, killing 35 and wounding many workmen and soldiers. Provision trains also are being made the selection."

Notwithstanding General Gonzales' assertion that a military force was left behind at Mexico City, officials here were inclined to doubt it was sufficient to maintain order. Pachuca is on the direct line of railroad between Queretaro and Mexico City, though east of the former city and northeast of the latter. Villa's column is reported to number 10,000 men, led by Generals Rodolfo Fierro, Faniello Natera and Camilo Reyes. Private advices reaching Washington declare this army left Queretaro for the purpose of attacking Carranza forces in the capital, planning to secure Pachuca first as a base of operations and to effect a junction with Zapata. The latter was responsible for the 'straggles' mentioned by

GOMPERS ANXIOUS TO PREVENT BIG STRIKE

PRESIDENT FEDERATION OF LABOR CALLS CONFERENCE OFFICERS FOR WASHINGTON.

Machinists at Bridgeport Declare Nothing Can Stop Them From Walking Out.

Washington, July 19.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, announced tonight that he had called a conference of officers of the International Association of Machinists to meet with him in Washington to consider the strike of the Remington Arms and Ammunition company's plant at Bridgeport, Conn.

In calling the conference Mr. Gompers said it was his purpose to use every resource at his command to prevent a general strike. Officials of the department of labor declared tonight they believed an agreement would be reached in time to avert a general strike. Mr. Gompers reiterated the charge that foreign interests had sought to bring about labor troubles in the United States to check the exportation of war supplies. "I do not want to shut off my line of information by making it public at this time," he said.

Says Cannot Prevent.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 19.—J. J. Keppeler, international president of the Machinists' union, when advised of the call for a conference issued tonight in Washington by Samuel Gompers, said he and other labor leaders here would pay no attention to any such call.

Neither Samuel Gompers or the president of the United States can stop this strike now," he said. The announcement was made by J. J. Keppeler, international president of the Machinists' union, and John A. Johnston, vice president of the Structural Iron Workers, after a meeting in the machinists' hall attended by more than a dozen heads of international labor organizations. Keppeler and Johnston were the committee appointed Friday by the machinists to present their demands to Major W. G. Penfield, works manager of the Remington company. Johnston said:

"At 4 o'clock this afternoon the last moment of the time we agreed to allow the man I conferred with in New York to arrange a settlement if he possibly could, I was called to the telephone. The man said this to me: 'I cannot do anything. I have tried my best. You can suit yourself as to any action you may take.'"

"I cannot tell you the name of the man. Had he brought about a peaceful settlement I was prepared to give him the credit. But as he has failed it is best that his name remain unknown. He has interests here and to divulge his name might do him harm in a business way in the future."

"The strike will start at noon tomorrow. We first will pull all the men out of the new Remington plant. This includes all machinists, die sinkers, die makers, drop forgers and tool makers."

It was said it was planned to have in the neighborhood of 500 men walk out at first. Then one after another of the various shops would be empty of machinists. The hod carriers working on the new buildings being erected by the Stewart Construction company for the Remington company have already taken a strike vote to follow the machinists. There are some 200 hod carriers at the plant.

In addition there is one sub-contracting plant but the leaders declined to say whether the men will walk out tomorrow. They said one or two men had been discharged and the rest of the workers were dissatisfied.

Keppeler's Announcement. Keppeler said in his announcement that "this is the biggest job we have ever undertaken in this country." He then continued:

As for the statement by Major Penfield that German influence brought about this situation I want to say this: If anyone forced the issue it was Major Penfield. We tried to confer with him. Even the United States government recognizes the right of the employee to confer with the employer. Major Penfield has denied us that right.

Keppeler declared that "say what other shops would be called out if the men in the new plant of the Remington company went on strike."

The Bridgeport Manufacturers' association at a meeting today, according to a statement given out by the secretary afterwards, determined to stand as a body behind the Remington company in its decision to maintain an open shop. In regard to this statement, Keppeler said: "That just belittles the issue. That is the stock cry that is always raised by the manufacturers in order to gain the sympathy of the public and of the non-union men. There was no mention of the Remington company's plant in the manufacturers' association made that statement today."

"It is plain that this is to be a fight to the finish. 'While I think of it, I might as well tell a secret. We have men working secretly on munitions of war. They are working under favorable conditions. They will continue to do that work unless the United States forbids them to do so. That is the only thing that can stop them. It certainly is reasonable to suppose that if there was any German influence behind this strike we would be working on this battle as the men in Bridgeport.'"

The statement made in Washington today by Samuel Gompers was mentioned by Timothy Daly of Cincinnati, president of the Polishers and Buffers' union, who is working on this battle as the men in Bridgeport.

"I understand from the published interview with Mr. Gompers," said Keppeler, "that he says it is a strike against an American Federation of Labor man here to take charge of the situation. I would like to know what Mr. Gompers has got to do with this. The International Union are capable of taking care of themselves."

"Of course will welcome organizers from the American Federation of Labor. I intend to find out from Mr. Gompers what he means when he says that German money must have been used. If he has any such information we want it. We have a right to it."

"The prospects of the strike spreading through New England, Keppeler said no definite plans had been made in that direction."

The general strike situation tonight was further complicated when it became known that an attempt was being made to bring about a strike of Hungarians working for the Remington company or the sub-contractors. Many copies of a Hungarian newspaper published simultaneously in New York, Chicago and other cities was circulated. In this paper the Hungarians were urged to attend a strike meeting tomorrow night.

Meetings were held by a number of unions tonight. So far as could be learned, no definite action was taken. The Hod Carriers' union at a special meeting voted not to walk out tomorrow. They threatened action until Wednesday night. The Hod Carriers previously had voted to walk out with the machinists.

John Kirby Tells of Competition in the Foreign Markets

Chicago, July 19.—Governmental regulation of competition as opposed to the government's activity against trusts and monopolies is a necessity, according to representatives of the lumber industry, was presented in formal statements describing conditions in their trade at a conference held here today before the federal trade commission and a committee representing the National Lumber association.

John Kirby of Houston told the commissioners competition in the foreign lumber market was keen. The bulk of European and South American trade is obtained by forming selling combinations, he said. "Credits can be secured, ships can be subsidized and agents in the principal cities can be maintained by the foreign trade," Kirby added, "but we cannot do that."

"How are you prohibited from entering into such agreements and combinations to get the foreign business?" Commissioner Ruben asked. Kirby answered: "What authority have you for that?" "It is what every American trader has told me. I have searched diligently for a lawyer to uphold our attitude but every one has talked against it. The lumber men are afraid to take the chance."

Slight Rise in One Branch of Kansas River is Reported

Kansas City, July 19.—A slight rise in the middle and western reaches of the Kansas river was reported today in the eastern portion of the stream tomorrow, was the forecast tonight of the weather bureau here. A moderate rise in the Missouri river north of here is expected to check its fall locally and possibly cause a slight rise tomorrow or Wednesday. No serious damage is expected here.

Arrange for Neutral Cargoes. Washington, July 19.—An arrangement is being negotiated between the British government and the Standard Oil company which is expected to save the company's shipments with cargoes for neutral ports from seizure and detention. Under the plan the company would agree to limit the amount of the shipments to reach the figure shown by the statistics of the period before the war to be the normal assumption of that country.

TIN HAT WITH COPPER-BAND. It's All the Same As a Sardine Can in Material, But It's Light and Natty. (Boston Post.)

The latest innovation in men's apparel has been sprung by W. H. Whiting of Jonesboro, Maine. It is a tin hat, with a band made of copper. He fashioned the natty headpiece himself and it is not only very light in weight, but he claims that it is cooler than a straw "boonie," lasts longer and is absolutely rainproof.

Man Supposed to Have Been Murdered Returns to His Home

Milwaukee, July 19.—A man believed to have been murdered and identified in the morgue by relatives as their kin, returned today to his awe-stricken family.

The man is Frank Klug. He was supposedly murdered August 22, near Lake Station. Nick Georgian was arrested for the murder and on December 5, 1914, was sentenced to 25 years imprisonment.

According to attorneys and officials the fact that Klug has returned will make no difference in the sentence imposed on Georgian. The fact that a man was murdered was well established, they said, and the circumstances evidence positively connected Georgian with the crime. Georgian, however, has continually denied his guilt.

Klug disappeared after becoming discouraged with his home conditions. Fearing arrest for desertion he made no effort to communicate with his family until recently when a letter from a friend gave him his first intimation that he had been "murdered."

Man Acquitted in Bootlegging Case is Shot by Woman

Graham, July 19.—R. M. Todd, one of the defendants acquitted in the Fry case at Wichita Falls last April, and who was convicted on bootlegging in the county court here last week, was shot four times by Mrs. J. H. Henderson, proprietress of a rooming house, at 7 o'clock this morning. Five shots were fired, four taking effect.

Mrs. Henderson waived examining trial and was released on $500 bond. She has made no statement. The shot was an automatic. Three bullets struck in the upper part of the body. One pierced the lungs and another the neck. Todd has a chance to recover. The shooting occurred on the sidewalk in the business section of town and several persons saw it.

Bond Election Lost at Kennedy.
Kennedy, Texas, July 19.—In the election held Saturday in the Kennedy road district to determine whether the bonds of the said district shall be issued to the amount of $125,000 to build good roads, 174 votes were cast for the issuance of the bonds and 124 votes were cast against the issuance. Thus, the bonds lost, not having received two-thirds majority. Kennedy box gave 145 for and 68 against.

Caldwell Member of Board.
Marlin, July 19.—M. L. Caldwell, principal of the Marlin high school, has been appointed a member of the board of state superintendent Doughty. He leaves for Austin Monday with his family in order to report for duty on July 20.

Harvey Oswald Dead.
Caldwell, July 19.—Harvey Oswald, a young man about twenty years old, died yesterday at the home of his uncle, M. W. Green in the Bryan community, as a result of using chloroform to relieve a headache. He was found lying on a cot, dead, with the chloroform bottle by him.

A Full Measure of Health

is the reward of those who live right and eat right.

And as fresh air, exercise, and good food are the principal factors, it is important that food be selected which contains the essential nutritive elements in well-balanced, easily digestible form.

In making the famous wheat and barley food, the malting of the barley brings out the diastase (the digestive element) while the long 20-hour baking breaks down the starch cells of the grains. Thus Grape-Nuts does not tax the digestion, but actually assists in the assimilation of other foods.

Grape-Nuts

MRS. ABE BERLOWITZ WINS OVERLAND CAR

PRIZE WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN CONTEST AT THE HIPPODROME THEATRE.

Miss Amelia Lawine Gets $300 Diamond Ring and Mrs. J. M. Henshaw $100 in Gold.

Mrs. Abe Berlowitz won the $500 five-passer Overland in the Hippodrome contest, her vote being 1,075,305. The second prize of a $300 diamond ring went to Miss Amelia Lawine with 444,680 votes, and the third prize of $100 in gold to Mrs. J. M. Henshaw with 557,945 votes. The results were announced last night by the judges, W. V. Crawford, advertising manager for Sanger Bros.; Harry M. Baine, general manager of the Morning News; and C. J. Glover, business manager of the Times-Herald. In making the announcement, Mr. Crawford complimented the contest managers and the Hippodrome management on the fair manner in which the contest was conducted. It was stated that all the records of the contest are open to inspection for anybody who may care to see them.

According to the rules of the contest, all contestants who did not win prizes will be given 10 per cent of the cash from sales of tickets they made. Manager J. E. Evered of the Hippodrome announced last night that contestants could secure this amount by coming to the box office of the theatre at any time after 10 o'clock this morning.

The list of contestants, aside from the prize-winners, with their votes, as announced, is as follows:

Mrs. Lee Bassett	434,745
Miss Jimmie Higgins	347,415
D. M. Darden	294,725
Miss Ruth Vickers	138,535
Miss Gertrude Mayr	135,885

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

"Totin" a pistol cost Tom Garra $100. County Judge George N. Denton fined him that amount on his plea of guilty.

Crook & Harper of Lorena filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy in the federal court here yesterday. Liabilities are listed at $4,721.88, assets $4,098, no exemptions.

A cabaret dinner will be served at the Elks club tonight from 9 to 11 o'clock. Secretary E. J. Baker announces that tables will be reserved only for those who engage them by noon today.

Work began yesterday on remodeling the Elks building on the corner of Fourth and Franklin streets. New fronts will be put in for all the stores in the building which front on the Fourth street side.

The sixth week of the trial of the Ford and Lincoln cases began yesterday in the Seventy-fourth district court. Dr. G. B. Foscoe is seeking $60,000 damages from the company on account of alleged libel. When the account of alleged libel was read, Judge Erwin J. Clark said they expected it would take at least eight weeks. Indications are that the trial may last even longer.

Cards are out for the wedding of John W. Foster, formerly city street commissioner, to Miss Ida Lege of Rilex, Miss, which will take place in that city July 22. Announcement is made that Mr. and Mrs. Foster will be in Waco after Aug. 1. The bride is a sister of J. W. Archer of Houston, frequently a Waco visitor on business of the interstate commerce commission, of which he is a representative. Since his retirement from office as street commissioner last April, Mr. Foster has returned to his profession of railroad conductor, accepting a position on the S. A. & A. P. out of Waco. He was for a number of years prior to taking office as city commissioner a conductor on the Texas Central.

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. J. Gode is here from New Braunfels on business.

Ed W. Goffrey of San Antonio is in Waco for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Freeman of Sherman were in Waco visitors yesterday.

C. A. Carringer, commercial agent of the Santa Fe, is in Galveston for the road.

J. P. Earle, president of the Texas Telephone company, left this morning for Kansas City on business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Reece and daughter have gone to Knoxville, Tenn., for the remainder of the summer.

CHARGE DELIVERED IN CASE AT MARLIN

MORE THAN 1200 REMAIN IN THE COURT ROOM WHILE IT IS BEING PREPARED.

Prosecutor Introduces Surprising Testimony to Show Cause for Murder of Wilganowski.

Marlin, July 19.—More than twelve hundred men and women waited in the court room here today where the Wilganowski case is being tried from 2 until 5 o'clock while Judge Richard L. Munroe prepared his charge to the jury.

The addresses to the jury began with Ben Rice for the state. The charge embraced murder, aggravated assault and battery, and simple assault, with several special charges relating to insanity and the acceptance of the confession made by Mrs. Wilganowski and the necessity of the death of the missing man being proven by the state. The speaking was not finished tonight.

The prosecutor introduced testimony this morning that caused some surprise, as it tended not only to prove the missing man could not sign his name, but tended to show of his motive that might have impelled the aged defendant to commit the alleged crime.

Josie Tiberowski, one of the daughters of the missing man, testified in having found a promissory note in the lining of the hat worn by the defendant when married to E. D. Wilganowski. The note, dated November 3, 1913, and bearing a 4 per cent interest, was payable to Kate Meteska, the name of the defendant before marriage to the missing man. She was in case of his death to receive $300, this constituting clearing all her claims on the estate.

In proof that the man could not write, the signature was proven to have been by means of his initials, "J. T." The authenticity of the document was proven by the introduction of W. J. Finks, the lawyer who drew the note and witnessed the proceedings. He testified it was genuine and that he had drawn up the note.

M. V. Bradshaw, cashier of the First State bank, was again called to the stand and testified to a certain check having passed through this bank, payable to E. D. Wilganowski and endorsed on the back by some party other than the said Wilganowski.

The state also introduced "N. W. Goodrich, foreman of the grand jury which indicted Kate Wilganowski, who testified the grand jury had used every means possible to learn whether the alleged killing was done by means of the stick of wood, and that to the best of their ability at investigating such matters, it was so done.

Saturday afternoon the state introduced several witnesses in rebuttal to the evidence introduced by the defense Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Jury Enjoys Outing.
Marlin, July 19.—The "prohibition" jury in the Wilganowski murder case, under guard of a deputy sheriff, enjoyed a jaunt in automobiles to the falls on the Brazos river yesterday. The men have been taking their detention very good naturedly, but many have expressed their hopes that a decision may be quickly reached after the lawyers finally get through setting the case. The jury has been generally dubbed "that prohibition" jury since the election Thursday.

Jury Called at Marlin.
Marlin, July 19.—The following out of thirty-six summoned as this week's jury responded in the district court when their names were called: G. W. Hazlewood Sr., Francis Powers, Frank Risinger, T. A. Raiford, R. E. L. Tomlinson, John Teetz, W. R. Mullins, J. M. Rainwater, Zeake Bartlett, H. O. Treto, P. L. Wadkins, T. S. Crook and Ben Dyer.

Owing to the Wilganowski case still being on trial, the jurors were dismissed until Wednesday, as were the special veniremen and witnesses in the case of James Price and Will Graham, set for trial today, but reset for next Wednesday. These are both murder cases.

Complaint Result of Election.
Marlin, July 19.—One complaint has been filed in the city court as an outgrowth of the local option election Thursday. The complaint being filed by Norwood, an alderman, charging that a certain party used abusive language in talking to a young man taking pictures of an automobile hauling negroes.

Marlin Confederate Reunion.
Marlin, July 19.—The reunion of old settlers and Confederate veterans at Falls county for this year will begin tomorrow at Tolinson Hill campment grounds, a few miles from Marlin, and enjoy a fine three days' session. The association will be entertained while at the campment by the chapters of this county joining in an effort to make the occasion memorable to all who attend. It is stated that they expect a much larger number out than usual and are prepared to give them all a good time.

New Cages for Jail.
Marlin, July 19.—The city authorities accepted today the offer of County Judge F. S. Heffner for the county, of several steel cages, now a part of the old county jail, provided the city would remove them from the old work, so the work of building the new county jail might be started by next Monday. The work of removing the cells was started today, as the purchase of new cages for the city calaboose would cost approximately $1,000.

Consider Bond Matter.
Marlin, July 19.—At 5:30 o'clock this afternoon a number of business men assembled at the court house, in response to the call of Mayor E. W. Bounds to consider the matter of the bonds recently voted in relation to the manner in which they were declared wrongfully issued by the attorney general. City Attorney Hunnicutt had the written opinion ready to read to the men present and several ways of overcoming the decision were suggested, but no definite action was taken.

Crowds at Marlin Churches.
Marlin, July 19.—In spite of the heat there were good congregations present at the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches this morning, many being attracted by rumors that the pastors expected to explain the recent pro defeat. Several who attended stated the subject was done full justice.

Wacoans at Marlin.
Marlin, July 19.—Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hutchinson, Misses Fannie and Fay Thomas and Mrs. Mary Robeson left this week for the Frisco exposition.

THE WOMEN'S CALENDAR FOR THIS TUESDAY

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Downer, South Fifth street, have guests; 8 o'clock. Cabaret dinner, Huaco club; 9 o'clock.

DR. AND MRS. DOWNER HAVE EVENING GUESTS

In compliance to his summer school class in Latin, Dr. J. W. Downer of Baylor university will be host in his own home this evening. Mrs. Downer is arranging the details to make this purely an hour of social pleasure.

WACO WOMEN RESPONSIVE TO EVERY GOOD CALL

One has but to let it be known that humanity calls, and the good women of this city respond. This refers to the published letter some few days ago concerning the distribution of second-hand literature. The interim, it would seem, has not been an idle one, for the Morning News editor received in the Monday edition a letter which to thank you for the very effective assistance which you rendered the Free News Stand through your columns.

T. F. BUSH CHAIRMAN COTTON PALACE COMMITTEE

President Sanger has announced his committee for social entertainment during Cotton Palace season. This committee, design, painting work, the idea of artistic home decorations before the weaving wave of popularity. The selection of colors, the glazing of the pottery, and other things, are the most important connected with the exposition season, in that it establishes the city's prestige in social life. It is too far in advance for minute detail, but, as a whole, it is this committee's duty to conduct the queen's coronation, the society ball, and other coliseum events where social life receives its highest expression. The city is fortunate in having a man who is not only an able chairman, but a man who is a social leader. T. F. Bush, Jr., will be assisted by Langdon Luedde, W. D. Lacy, Jr., William Wigley and Joe Haber.

TODAY IS TEXAS DAY AT PANAMA PACIFIC

Today out on the Pacific beach, within the gates of the great Panama-Pacific exposition, Texans from all parts of the state, resident and tourist, are gathered in the Texas building. This means, doubtless, a formal program will be followed. In San Francisco is an organization of women, former Texans, now living in that city. It is the duty of this organization to host the Texas tourists, all of whom will make it convenient to spend today in San Francisco. In charge of the Texas buildings are two well known and loyal Texas women, Mrs. Eli Hertzberg from San Antonio and Mrs. Warren V. Galbreath from Fort Worth.

THE BAG IMPORTANT FOR SUMMER TOURING

Each season finds the bag playing a more important part in summer touring. The writer caught glimpse into the trunk of a steamer neighbor last season, an ingenious woman who had packed her trunk with a number of linen bags, blue for herself and grey for the husband. Thus, if the man wanted a fresh pocket handkerchief, she could at once extract the handkerchief from the bag, if one for herself, she could take the blue. Upon each bag was stitched the name of contents. So, there was no time lost in opening, neither any confusion. Everything went smoothly, as well as was always in order. And the presence of plenty of bags did it all. Later, we have noticed the tendency towards the box trunk. In this the same idea holds, that of putting one's hand at once upon what is desired without throwing the entire collection into confusion. For the woman who is starting upon an extended absence, the time saved by the box trunk is well worth the extra cost of a camp and was inconvenient the entire time simply for lack of a pen

KNOWLEDGE OF THE BOWL OF THE DISH

It is true that many a woman is shy on birthdays who is not one bit shy on the times? We rather think it is, but what matters it anyhow, how many birthdays a woman has had if she remains entertaining? Society seems weary of the term, flowers in bowls; so, it is now said that milady places her blossoms in dishes. We thought the bowl had depth and the dish was a very shallow, too shallow to hold the stems. The women of Waco must all put their wits together for some grand idea to evolve for Woman's Day. Previous Women's Days of the Cotton Palace have been studied up to the hilt, and each succeeding must better its predecessor.

We who have complained so much about the drippings from our porch hanging baskets might adopt the plan of Madam Galski. She has a cornucopia which she holds beneath the basket as she waters, and thus relieves the untidy drip on the floor.

Women who are drivers of their cars will wear with interest that the Newport aristocrats are taking to gayly and the blues are fitting everywhere. This is really a good idea for Texas, not necessarily the gay, but the colored car which does not show the wear of the dust so quickly.

At last Shakespeare is coming into his own as the inspiration for the theatrical wedding march. This has come to be called "Mendelssohn's" when, in reality, it is the composition of Mendelssohn inspired by the musical setting to Shakespeare's play, "Midsummer Night's Dream." Later, this has been called "The Bridal Chorus from Midsummer Night's Dream." And so it should be.

Why not do a little summer reading on arts and crafts, so that we may appreciate the exhibit which Mrs. Edgar Witt and her committee will have at the Cotton Palace? There is method in the hammering of brass, the shaping of the metal, the background knife. She could not write, she was sorely inconvenienced all the time for this one act of forgetfulness. So, it is well to have these bags ready, one for utility pieces, and, whenever one is bethought at once place it in the bag. Think of the colors of your gown and pride thread accordingly. The woman who waits until the last and flurries around packing, is the woman who is later inconvenienced every hour in the day. Think ahead, and, do not forget plenty of bags.

STUDY ART HERE AT HOME SPECIMENS ARE RIGHT HERE

The proverbial human nature seeks to explore the foreign field for the home product. We are accused of enjoying that for which we pay the most money. It seems that we are guilty of this. Waco has never laid claim to being a city of architectural art; yet, right here, with our own buildings, we have some features well worth attention.

Take the window over the main entrance of the Church of the Assumption. Women will read about the famous old "rose windows"; they go abroad and hurry around frantically to see a "rose window." They see the beautiful one which sheds the soft glow over the time-stained statues in the statemen corner of Westminster. They stand out in the bright sun of the plaza before Notre Dame in Paris to see the famous rose window there. Not once has it occurred that in a small design, our own little Catholic church in one of our towns can show a glimpse of the location, form and effect of the rose window as we can get in the cathedrals on the other side of the Atlantic. We grant Waco is not the center of stained glass of foreign buildings. The art of that glass is lost, and we will never have its like again. But for all amateur purposes, we have our own "rose window." Go a little further down, and we see the new Dennis building, Sixth and Austin. There we see sample of the old thing, such as make the unearthed homes of Pompeii fascinating. That same thing is found in all the museums, while in more advanced art, it appears in the world renowned mosaics, the greatest of which are in St. Peter's church at Rome. Those who are not design, painting work, the idea of artistic home decorations before the weaving wave of popularity. The selection of colors, the glazing of the pottery, and other things, are the most important connected with the exposition season, in that it establishes the city's prestige in social life. SOCIETY NOTES

Place the crinolined lady beside her of the narrow skirt, note the contrast and then say not another word about the waste of Dame Fashion. Within the next few days Mrs. Sidney Burrows with Mrs. Rives Posten Halsey leaves to join Mrs. Luke Moore, Jr., at Winslow, up the Ozarks. On Monday Mrs. John G. Kendall, Mrs. Eugene Carrington and Miss Margaret K. Hill of the South Side are leaving for Siloam Springs, Arkansas. The question is asked, "Who should take the tricks at a bridge table?" Etiquette of bridge says, the declarer of the trump takes the trick for herself and partner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Westbrook with the Misses Marguerite and Virginia Westbrook, are making their trip from San Angelo to Colorado overland. This was begun with Saturday.

The early season hostesses must introduce the new decorations for the end of homes. This is a screen behind the receiving party, not only with foliage but gay with blossoms.

Cards from Mrs. Eugene Early reached home friends with the first post of the week. The report came of comfort for Mr. and Mrs. Early at Mudlava Health Resort, Indiana.

Speaking of the bowl or the dish, whichever it may be, have you reminded the little folks to have one with water for the thirsty birds as well as a bath? You know birds revel in the bath.

of a jewel. Study all this, and it grows fascinating. This study will add manifold to the interest of the Arts and Crafts booth.

Is not now a very good time for the stay at homes to take house inventory and make ready for fall freshening? Some of us are neglectful, and thus throw ourselves into a frenzy of disappointment because the shop man delays when the rush of the season begins. Why not lay out our plans now, and thus shorten the tediousness of the heated term as well as place our souls in satisfaction for enjoying the cool weather?

From the pictorial pages in the eastern papers, the inference is drawn that June brides vied in seeing which could give the most bizarre turn to the adjustment of their wedding veil. One even went so far as to leave her face and her front coiffure bare, and to have a stiff quill of veil adjusted by a ribbon band around the head. We do not like it. The very symbol of the veil is the modesty of the young girl; the throwing back the veil after the ceremony is suggestive of the wider sphere into which that young woman has entered. If the veil is to be adjusted according to a whim, it loses its significance.

Notice to Subscribers.
Delivery routes in the city of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers, who buy their papers at wholesale prices. Subscription accounts are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give the best delivery service, but to pay for their papers each month. Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except month by month. They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

The Morning News should be delivered throughout the city of Waco by 8:30 a. m., and subscribers failing to receive the paper at that time will confer a favor by phoning the Circulation Department, both phones 1122, and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Morning News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

AN UNFAIR APPEAL.

The Morning News has it on what it believes to be good authority that the liquor interests have sent out circulars all over the state not only showing a marked ballot on the question of the pending suffrage amendment to be voted on next Saturday, but urging the voters to vote against every other amendment in case they are not fully informed as to its meaning. Of course none of the other amendments affects the liquor interests, so far as we are able to see, unless it be the student loan fund—for the dissemination of information which the student loan fund would make possible would doubtless make more enemies for the liquor traffic—and the object of the appeal is to confuse the popular mind on all issues and bring about a negative vote on all the propositions so as to make sure a vote against the suffrage amendment.

This is characteristic of the methods employed by the liquor dealers and their associated interests. "They love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil" and are persuaded that they can continue to do business in this country only so long as a considerable number of people are kept in ignorance of the evils which the operation of their business entails. They are willing to defeat any number of meritorious measures in order to save their own business and knowing that they must always depend upon a large element of the ignorant vote for their support they proceed in advance of every election to mark ballots and issue such other instructions as will enable the ignorant, vicious man to offset the result of the vote of the intelligent, virtuous citizen.

The liquor interests probably deem it perfectly legitimate for them to try and save their business. But their efforts to do so should be confined to the realm of legal and ethical activity. That cause is lacking in merit of its own which must appeal to ignorance and prejudice against other measures for support for itself.

OVEREATING AND SUNSTROKE.

Sunstrokes are not common in Texas, but it is no fault of the sun. There is enough warmth in this state to strike down every strong man within the state's borders if he exerted himself sufficiently, and many do become overheated, but check themselves before they reach the stage of sunstroke.

But frequently the heat becomes so terrific as to make sunstroke eminent, especially to those who indulge too freely in either eating or drinking, and for the guidance of the people generally we are reproducing some rules, promulgated by Dr. Harvey J. Wiley, the pure food expert, which, if carefully followed, he says, will prevent sunstroke.

Here are the Rules:
"Eat everything, but moderately.
"Abstain from alcohol and tobacco.
"Drink plenty of cold water, but do not gulp it.
"Never drink with meals, but immediately after.
"Eat plenty of fruit and vegetables.
"Abstain from sweet soda fountain drinks, unless the syrup is used sparingly in them.
"If you eat moderately and refrain from drugs do not be afraid of sunstroke."

We are inclined to complain of the summer heat, but really there has been stronger and cooler breeze during July than we recall during any midsummer for several seasons.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT IS FOR ALL.

If house joint resolution No. 1, submitting to the people an amendment to the constitution permitting qualified voters who are away from home on election days to cast their ballots wherever they may be, is ratified at the polls next Saturday, every voter who is away from home on election days can, by showing his poll tax receipt and taking the proper affidavits, cast his vote for state and district offices.

Due to the fact that so much of the discussion concerning the amendment has centered around the traveling man and the railroad man, some persons living on the farm, we are informed have gotten the impression that the amendment is intended only to benefit traveling and railroad men and that the farmer away from home on election day would not have the privilege of voting. But that impression is erroneous. The farmer, the school teacher, the physician, the carpenter, the merchant, or any one else will have the privilege of casting his vote wherever he may be on election day provided he is qualified to vote at home, and the only reason that so much has been heard about the railroad men and the traveling men in connection with the amendment is that more of that class of people are kept away from home regularly by their business than most any other class.

In the Morning News of yesterday Judge John M. Duncan of San Antonio brought out a strong point against the claims of many of the anti-prohibitionists that so many foreign-born citizens would be disfranchised by the amendment, when he showed that by an act of congress passed in 1906, any foreign-born resident of the United States who had, prior to Sept. 29, 1906, expressed his intention to become a citizen can immediately take out his full naturalization papers without signing the application in writing or being required to speak the English language. The great majority of the foreign-born residents of Texas, with the possible exception of the Mexicans, were residents here prior to 1906, and we presume as the majority of them have been voting throughout the years that they took the first steps toward naturalization by filing a statement of their intention to become citizens.

These men can, should the amendment be adopted, become full-fledged citizens at once without possessing a knowledge of the English language and without signing their name in writing. There certainly can be no objection to their becoming full citizens when the process is so easy, and if they are entitled to citizenship we would not object to their becoming such, even though they might not vote the same way that we do. What we desire to prevent is the participation in our politics of men who are not citizens and who never intend to become citizens and who are subject to the control of corrupt interests. There are hundreds of foreign-born residents of Texas who will never vote for prohibition, and while we regret their attitude, we would not deny them the privilege of expressing their views provided they are full-fledged citizens of the United States. But we do object to the man who has been here only a few months, who knows nothing and cares less, possibly, about our institutions, participating in our elections, especially where his desire to participate is to fulfill a deal with the corrupt interests which are seeking to control our political machinery and our affairs of state.

Texas newspaperdom lost a trained and valuable member of the profession in the death of Frank Randolph of the editorial staff of the Beaumont Enterprise Sunday. He had contributed much to the development of his section of the state and his labors will live after him.

The New Orleans States declares that Kaiser Bill appears to have lost all his foreign colonies except Milwaukee and St. Louis. And Drs. Barton and Baker and others say they are going to wrest these towns from him in a few years.

Kansas always manages to divide those blue northers with us during the winter and we would appreciate it if she would be equally considerate in the division of that surplus moisture with which she is being visited just now.

Our friend Senator McNeal is becoming so impressed with the belief that Governor Ferguson ought not and cannot be re-elected we shall not be surprised if he throws himself into the breach in an effort to save the situation.

If Attorney General Looney is wise he will prepare for next summer's campaign by laying in a supply of ammunition for shelling the Woods from the Senter to the circumference of Texas.

We have an idea our old friend, Vic Huerta, might be willing to salute the flag now if he were given a good supply of grape juice to quench his thirst while lying up in the El Paso jail.

COST OF MAKING NEWSPAPERS.

Some people have an idea that anybody can run a newspaper; that such institutions are conducted largely for the exploitation of the fads, fancies and theories of the editor or owners; that the subscription price pays handsomely all the expenses involved, and that the advertising income is not profit. Some think, too, that they could do the work much more efficiently than those who are charged with that task, and maybe they could. And but very few people have any idea of the vast responsibility which the management of a daily newspaper assumes, nor of the business ability that is required to make of such a paper a successful institution, for no paper can be regarded a permanent success that does not pay its expenses and make a return upon the investment for its stockholders.

At a dinner given by the staff of the New York Times a few nights ago to Charles R. Miller, editor-in-chief, in commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of Mr. Miller's connection with that paper, Adolph S. Ochs, president and publisher of The Times, announced that the one hundred men gathered at the dinner represented only one-tenth of the number that are regularly employed in getting out that paper.

Continuing, he said:
"You of the editorial staff do the principal work, but an office boy can lose your best copy, a compositor mar it, a stereotypist obliterate it, and a pressman make it unreadable, and a mailer or carrier fail to deliver it to whom it may be most interesting; and this does not take into account that all-important department that secures the wherewithal that provides the bread and butter, the business and circulation departments. There is no banquet room in New York City that could comfortably seat all the people whose livelihood is made with the Times."

"It may interest you to know that there probably is more money expended in producing the New York Times than is expended on any other single newspaper in the world. We must earn over $75,000 every week before there is a cent for the owners, and 40 per cent of this amount goes for salaries and wages."

"We are consuming over 500 tons of white paper every week, and about a ton of printers' ink a day. Our Sunday circulation has reached 350,000 and our daily circulation this morning was 319,714."

"This all spells responsibility with a big R. A responsibility that would be overwhelming were it not for the enthusiastic, loyal, untiring co-operation generously given by those who are associated with me in guiding and directing the work."

"I wish to make my grateful acknowledgment to one and all for the assistance they have rendered in making the Times the great institution it is today, a newspaper of worldwide fame and generally recognized as typifying the highest standards of decent, dignified journalism."

"And notable among those who have contributed most to this great achievement is Charles R. Miller, our editor-in-chief, in whose honor we are assembled today to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of his coming to the Times."

"For it was on July 7, 1875, he began service in the editorial department and has been solely thus occupied since that day, having written for the Times during that time approximately what would make 1,000 volumes of 10,000 words each; and what he has written has stamped our work with character and permitted us to exercise power and influence among intelligent, thoughtful people throughout the world; distinguished our opinions as of the highest order of honest, sound reasoning, of the best literary style and of the loftiest patriotism."

Of course not all the newspapers of the country are as large as the New York Times, one of the largest and best papers published in the world, but in every newspaper office there is an element of expense and responsibility which the average reader knows little about and which he is unable to appreciate.

Another Texas newspaper man has landed a soft job in Washington. George M. Roberts, secretary of former Congressman Horace W. Vaughan and one-time editor at Mt. Pleasant, has been named superintendent of playgrounds and bathing beaches at the national capital, at a salary of $2,500 a year. There is no end to the things which a Texas newspaper man can do.

Samuel Morse Felton, Chicago railroad man, in turning down an annual salary of $250,000 from the Russian government to superintend the manufacture of munitions of war, proves that there is at least one American who cannot be lured away from what he deems his duty by the offer of a handsome reward.

Austin may lose the new state school for the blind as a result of the high prices demanded for real estate in and around that city. A little distribution of state institutions might not be a bad thing under the circumstances.

BREWERY CASES TO BE HEARD AT AUSTIN

ATTY-GEN. LOONEY ANNOUNCES CHANGE FROM SULPHUR SPRINGS TO AUSTIN.

Suit is for Alleged Violation of Anti-Trust Statutes and is Against Seven Concerns.

Austin, July 18.—Attorney General Looney announced today that testimony in the state's suit against seven breweries of Texas for alleged violation of the anti-trust statutes and contribution of funds to political organizations, would be taken in Austin beginning August 2, instead of at Sulphur Springs as had originally been planned.

The taking of testimony in Austin probably will consume several weeks.

54.6 State Tax Rate.
Austin, July 19.—Fifty-four and six-tenths cents per hundred dollars valuation will be the tax rate announced by the automatic tax board of the state when it meets to set the rate for the next fiscal year. Figures have been compiled by the comptroller's department showing that such a rate will be necessary to defray the expenses of the state during the next year.

This rate will be divided as 29.6 cents ad valorem rate for revenue purposes, 9 cents for school purposes and 5 cents for Confederate pensions. Figures show that the total amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending Aug. 1, 1916, amount of $5,761,942.40. Of this sum $2,932,679.51 will be raised from other sources than ad valorem tax according to computation, leaving $2,829,262.89 to be raised by taxes. An allowance of $1,355,832.70 of this total is made for delinquent payments, cost of assessing and other incidental expenses.

The ad valorem rate for revenue purposes is the highest in the history of the state. With the Confederate pension tax or separate school tax the total tax rate in 1880-1881 reached the 59 cent mark. In only two instances since 1888 has the ad valorem rate for revenue purposes passed the 29 cent mark. In 1895, when a 25 cent rate was levied, and in 1913, when a 23 cent rate was assessed.

Tax Board Will Adjourn.
Austin, July 19.—The absence of Governor Ferguson from the city, which it is contemplated will be for the remainder of the week, will result in the meeting of the automatic tax board for Tuesday, July 20, in adjourning until his return. The action of the board will be on the figures submitted by the comptroller's department showing a rate of 54.6 cents.

Elections in Five Districts.
Austin, July 19.—The secretary of state announces elections in five districts for representatives to the state legislature. Those districts are One Hundred and Fifth, composed of Dickens, Kent, King, Stonewall and Scurry counties; Fifty-fifth, of Ellis county; Thirtieth, of Jefferson; Fifteenth, of Harris; and Twenty-third, of Madison and Leon counties. The members who tendered their resignations from the districts are respectively T. F. Baker, G. W. Knight, E. A. McDowell, Sam H. Dixon and D. C. Dove.

Nine Counties Fail to Report.
Austin, July 19.—Nine counties failed to submit tax estimates of the taxable values of their counties to the comptroller's department for use in making compilations necessary for consideration of state automatic tax board. It is very likely that officials in these counties will be penalized for their action. Estimates of county valuations for 1914 were used in making the estimates for 1915 where no returns were made. The absentees counties were Burleson, Crockett, Crosby, Harrison, Rusk, Starr, Upshur, Upton and Ward counties.

Dallas Richest County.
Austin, July 19.—Dallas county is the richest county of the state, according to tax estimates submitted to the comptroller's department. Figures show Dallas $142,135,630, Harris $135,000,000, Bexar $109,863,866, Tarrant $100,000,000, McLennan $55,870,310, and Jefferson $52,453,025.
